The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 23, to Tuesday June 26, 1792.

Whitehall, June 26.

THE following Addreſs of the Rector and Inhabitants of the Iſland of Portland has been preſented to the King by Sir George Jackſon, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Rector and Inhabitants of the Iſland of Portland, with the warmeſt Thanks, and in the moſt grateful Manner, beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, on your Majeſty's Condeſcenſion and Goodneſs, in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation for the diſcountenancing ſuch Acts and Meaſures, as have lately been purſued by People inimical to the wholeſome Laws and good Government of theſe Kingdoms. The watchful Care of your Majeſty to preſerve the Peace and Happineſs of all your Subjects, muſt be highly ſatisfactory to every good Mind; and we truſt that every ſuch Mind will, to the utmoſt of it's Power, (encouraged by your Majeſty's Countenance and Support) ſo exert itſelf, as to cruſh the baſe and baneful Attempts of thoſe, whoſe reſtleſs and perturbed Thoughts ſicken at the Proſperity of their Country.

Bleſſed with a Sovereign, the true Guardian of his People; happy in innumerable Enjoyments, ariſing from a State of undiſturbed Peace; envied by the whole World for the Excellence of our Conſtitution; and dreaded by ſurrounding Kingdoms from the flouriſhing State of our Finances and Commerce, are Circumſtances that mark the preſent Æra as great and happy: Every Briton ſhould be proud of it. And we truſt that all loyal Subjects will be inſpired with that patriotic Ardor, as to feel any Attempt to diſturb the Peace and Happineſs of their Country, as an Affront offered to themſelves. Poſſeſſing peculiar Privileges, purchaſed by the Loyalty of our Anceſtors, we are emulous to tranſmit them to Poſterity, cheriſhed by that Conduct which firſt gave them Birth. Senſible of thoſe Enjoyments we reap from your Majeſty's mild and happy Reign, we moſt heartily pray, that they may long flow from the ſame Source; and convinced of the dangerous Tendencies of Innovations in Government, we rely on your Majeſty's Wiſdom, to guard againſt the deſigning Machinations of wicked and ambitious People. Flattering ourſelves, when we ſpeak our own Sentiments we pronounce thoſe of a grateful People, the Nation at large; we doubt not but the invidious Deſigns of the Diſturbers of Public Tranquillity will ſhrink before the firm and unſhaken Loyalty of true Engliſhmen.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital and Free Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Liſkeard has been preſented to His Majeſty by Lord Eliot and Mr. John Eliot, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital and Free Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Liſkeard.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital and Free Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Liſkeard, fully convinced of the great Bleſſings we enjoy from your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, under a Conſtitution formed with Wiſdom, and on the ſoundeſt Principles, cannot but lament that there ſhould exiſt Men ſo daring and wicked as to attempt the Subverſion of it.

Your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation will, we truſt, put a final Stop to the ſeditious Publications, Aſſociations and Correſpondences which have of late ſo infamouſly exiſted; and we doubt not but that thoſe who have been in Error will have a juſt Senſe of the

Mo. chief

Miſchief their wrong Conduct might unhappily have produced.

The ſtrong Attachment we have to your Majeſty, and the Conſtitution, will inſure every Aſſiſtance in our Power for the Preſervation of Peace and good Order, and ſtimulate us to detect and bring to Juſtice the Enemies of your Majeſty, our Country, and it's Laws.

Whitehall, June 26.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Stratford upon Avon in the County of Warwick, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our unfeigned Thanks for the Wiſdom and Benevolence manifeſted to us and all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects by your late Royal Proclamation.

We venerate the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, as eſtabliſhed by the Glorious Revolution; and we truſt that the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, enjoying with us the moſt abundant National Proſperity under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, will alſo, with us, unite their utmoſt Support to your Majeſty's Endeavours to continue theſe Bleſſings by ſuppreſſing thoſe ſeditious Publications, Societies and Correſpondences, which we conceive would otherwiſe be productive of the moſt alarming and dangerous Conſequences.

Given under our Common Seal, this 14th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, with others of the Principal Inhabitants of your antient Town of Rye.

PERMIT us, Sire, upon an Occaſion which, we truſt, unites the Sentiments of every real Friend of our Country, to approach your Majeſty's Throne, penetrated with the warmeſt Gratitude for that paternal and unceaſing Vigilance over the Peace, Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom, which has ever diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's Reign, and which, at this Juncture, is eminently diſplayed in the Royal Proclamation ſent forth to prevent the miſchievous Effects of a diſcontented and ſeditious Spirit in certain of your Majeſty's Subjects, inſenſible, as it ſhould ſeem, to the Merits of that happy Conſtitution and Government under which this Country has ſo long ſubſiſted, the Envy and Admiration of the World.

As in Duty bound, we eagerly preſs forward, with the reſt of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, to teſtify our Senſe of thoſe innumerable Bleſſings we continually experience under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and to expreſs our Confidence, that, if a Bleſſing could be added to thoſe we enjoy, your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Patriotiſm would anticipate the Wiſhes of your People.

With theſe Sentiments we preſume moſt humbly to offer your Majeſty our unfeigned Aſſurances of Loyalty and unſhaken Fidelity.

[Tranſmitted by Tho. Phil. Lamb, Eſq; Mayor of that Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Town Council, and Community of your Royal Borough of Nairn, in North Britain, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude for the ineſtimable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Government, and to expreſs our Abhorrence at that Spirit of Innovation, and thoſe inflammatory Doctrines which have lately gone forth, and are now propagated, for the oſtenſible Purpoſe of aſcertaining the Rights of Men, but which have a manifeſt Tendency to introduce Anarchy, Riot and Diſcord, and overturn a Conſtitution founded upon the moſt conſummate human Wiſdom, and which has ſtood the Teſt of Ages, ſecuring to this Iſland as much real Happineſs as could reaſonably be hoped for by Man in a State of Civil Society.

Though we have the Happineſs to inform your Majeſty of the tranquil State of this Corner of your united Kingdoms, it is our firm Purpoſe, both in a public and private Capacity, to render nugatory and ineffectual every Attempt tending either to inflame the Public Mind, or innovate that happy Conſtitution, which has ſo long been the Admiration of Mankind.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by the preſiding Magiſtrate, at Nairn, the 14th of June, 1792.

Alex. Inglis.

[Tranſmitted by Sir James Grant, Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Bamff.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Kirkaldy, in Common Council aſſembled, beg at this Time to expreſs their Zeal and Attachment to the Conſtitution of their Country, their Loyalty to their Sovereign, and their moſt grateful Thanks for the new Marks of his Fatherly Regard and Affection to his People, ſo clearly ſet forth in the late Royal Proclamation.

Senſible of the great and many Advantages, Religious and Civil, which we at preſent enjoy, and knowing that the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings depends upon a ſacred Regard to Order and to the Laws, we are reſolved to diſcourage and reſtrain, to the utmoſt of our Power, whatever may tend to leſſen that Regard, and to exert our Endeavours to ſupport and maintain the general Tranquillity and Proſperity of this Part of your Majeſty's Dominions.

It is our conſtant Prayer that your Majeſty may long reign over a free and happy People, and that the Conſtitution, in Church and State, may be handed down unimpaired to lateſt Poſterity.

Signed and ſealed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, this 14th of June 1792.

Michael Beveridge, Provoſt.

[Tranſmitted by the Hon. Charles Hope, Repreſentative in Parliament for that Burgh.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of Kinghorn.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Burgh of Kinghorn, beg Leave to return our moſt grateful Thanks for the paternal Care which your Majeſty

Majeſty has ſhown for your People in warning them, by your late gracious Proclamation, of the ſeditious Attempts which have been made to diſturb the Happineſs and Tranquillity of this Nation.

Sire, the Perſons who have made theſe Attempts know not the Sentiments which animate your People. Grateful to Providence for the Bleſſings which they enjoy, they will not ſuffer their Loyalty to your Majeſty, or their Attachment to the Conſtitution, to be ſhaken by the milicious Endeavours, either of the Diſcontented at Home, or of the Envious Abroad.

And, for ourſelves, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that in Defence of your Throne, and of the Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, we ſhall be ready, at all Times, to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, as well againſt the Miſtakes of thoſe who are honeſt, as againſt the Machinations of thoſe who are not ſo.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment,

And. Hamilton, Provoſt.

Kinghorn, June 14, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by the Hon. Charles Hope, Repreſentative in Parliament for that Burgh.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere Acknowledgments for that paternal Care your Majeſty has manifeſted towards the Proſperity and Happineſs of all your Subjects, in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation againſt the wicked and ſeditious Practices that have been uſed to excite Tumult and Diſorder, and to vilify and bring into Contempt the happy Conſtitution of Government, Civil and Religious, eſtabliſhed in this Kingdom.

And we do aſſure your Majeſty that we will at all Times, to the utmoſt of our Power, avoid and diſcourage all Proceedings and Attempts, which aim at the Subverſion of your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and are inconſiſtent with the Peace and Order of Society.

Signed in our Preſence, in our Name, and by our Appointment,

Alex. Birtwhiſtle, Preſes.

Kirkcudbright, June 18, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by Mr. Birtwhiſtle.]

Whitehall, June 26.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Magiſtrates and Freeholders of the County of Salop, deſire to offer to your Majeſty our warmeſt and moſt grateful Thanks for your uniform and conſtant Attention to the true Intereſts and Welfare of your People, and particularly for your Majeſty's moſt ſeaſonable and judicious Proclamation.

We have ſeen with Indignation the Attempts that have been made by the Publication of ſeditious Writings, and by the Formation and Correſpondences of unwarrantable Aſſociations, to excite Diſcontent throughout the Land, and to alienate the Minds of Men from the happy Conſtitution of Government, Civil and Religious, eſtabliſhed in this Kingdom at the Time of the Glorious Revolution. But we are not alarmed, becauſe we are convinced that a great and irreſiſtible Majority of the Nation unites with us in firm Attachment to the Conſtitution, and in a grateful Senſe of the Bleſſings and unexampled Proſperity we enjoy under your Majeſty's benign and vigilant Government, and becauſe we feel a ſettled Determination, in our ſeveral Stations and Capacities, whether as Magiſtrates or as Men, to ſupport the Laws with Energy and Effect, to maintain and preſerve unimpaired the Rights of Freedom and Order tranſmitted to us by our Anceſtors, and to reſiſt, if the Neceſſity ſhall ſo require, at the Riſque of whatever is moſt dear and valuable to us, the raſh and wicked Attempts of the political Adventurers of the preſent Day.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

ACtuated by a grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and fully convinced that the Wealth, Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom depend on a due Submiſſion to the Laws, and a perfect Confidence in the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament, we, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, beg Leave to approach the Throne, impreſſed with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection towards your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, and to return your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Thanks for the Meaſures which your Majeſty hath thought proper to adopt, in order to counteract the Effects of the late ſeditious Publications, which tend to weaken every Sentiment of Obedience to the Laws, and to excite groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall hold it to be our indiſpenſible Duty to pay the ſtricteſt Obedience to your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, which we cannot but conſider as a freſh Inſtance of your paternal Care and Anxiety for the Welfare of your People, and that we will, in our ſeveral Stations, both as Magiſtrates and Citizens, moſt readily exert ourſelves to diſcourage and ſuppreſs every Attempt which may be made againſt the Public Peace and Order of Society. May the preſent Conſtitution of this Country, the Work of Ages, and the Admiration of Mankind, be preſerved inviolate; may Divine Providence ſupport and protect it; and may your Majeſty long continue to be, as you have been, it's faithful Guardian and Friend, and as long continue to reign in the Hearts of a great, free and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Canterbury, this 19th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Worceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Worceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled, humbly humbly addreſs your Majeſty on your Majeſty's gracious Proclamation.

In the fulleſt Conviction that our preſent excellent Conſtitution in Church and State is the beſt that can be framed for the Happineſs and Proſperity of the People; that under it we enjoy the Bleſſings of Liberty, whilſt it's Reſtraints are well calculated to ſuppreſs Tumult and Licentiouſneſs, we look with Indignation on thoſe who would introduce Jealouſies and Diſtruſt, however ſpeciouſly their Attempts may be diſguiſed, or under whatever Pretext they may be brought forward.

We beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty the ſincere and warm Attachment and Gratitude we bear to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, and to aſſure your Majeſty that our moſt ſtrenuous Exertions ſhall never be wanting to preſerve Peace, Order and Regularity, and to maintain a due Obedience to the Laws.

Given under our Hands at the ſaid City, this 14th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of Glouceſter, in General Publick Meeting aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our grateful Thanks for the Royal Proclamation your Majeſty has been pleaſed to iſſue for repreſſing the wicked and ſeditious Practices mentioned therein.

Fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we actually enjoy under our preſent Government, zealouſly attached to our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, perfectly ſatisfied that it is the ſafeſt and the beſt calculated for the Glory and the Honour of our Country, and the Freedom, Happineſs and Proſperity of ourſelves, and all our Fellow-Subjects of every Rank and Degree, we aſſure your Majeſty that we will, in our reſpective Stations, to the utmoſt of our Power, guard againſt all Attempts to ſubvert the Government, diſobey the Laws, or diſturb the Peace; and uſe our Endeavours to bring to Puniſhment all who ſhall be guilty of ſuch Attempts; and that we will be ready at all Times, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to ſtand forth in Defence of your Majeſty's juſt Rights, and of the Government and Conſtitution of our Country as it is now by Law eſtabliſhed.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Mayor, the Mayor Elect, and Aldermen of the City of Norwich, in full Court of Mayoralty aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Mayor, the Mayor Elect, and Aldermen of the City of Norwich, moſt humbly offer you our warmeſt Thanks for your late gracious Proclamation, which we conſider as an additional Teſtimony of the paternal Solicitude for your People's Welfare, and attentive Regard for the Preſervation of our excellent Conſtitution, which we have experienced during your Majeſty's Reign, whence we derive the Bleſſings of rational Freedom, with the Protection of Property, ſo eſſential to the Security of a Commercial Country.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will moſt readily and zealouſly oppoſe and ſuppreſs all ſuch illegal Meaſures as may tend to overturn that Conſtitution, which, when properly conſidered, muſt invariably form the Baſis of your Majeſty's Glory and the Nation's Happineſs.

Signed at a full Court of Mayoralty, the 18th Day of June, 1792.

J. G. Baſeley, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the loyal Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, not in a Strain of Adulation, or with Profeſſions which would diſſolve in the Hour of Trial, but as Men who, having drawn in the Spirit of Liberty at their Birth, will part with it only at their Death.

Relying on our Experience of your Majeſty's Virtues, and confiding in the tried Integrity and Abilities of your Miniſters, we indulge the pleaſing Hope that your Royal Proclamation and the Wiſdom of your Councils will ſtop the Progreſs of thoſe dangerous Publications, which have warped the Minds of miſguided Men from their conſtitutional Duty, by ſpeculative Theories and Utopian Reformations; as to ourſelves we hold in Contempt the libellous Efforts of the Enemies of our Conſtitution, to plunge this Country into Anarchy and Confuſion: Contented with the mixed Legiſlature of King, Lords and Commons, we equally abhor the Inſolence of Ariſtocracy, and the Turbulence of Democracy.

In vain is the Revolution of a neighbouring Nation held out for our Admiration: We can diſcover no Analogy between the Slaves of Deſpotiſm ſtruggling for Liberty, and Freemen ruſhing into the Horrors of a Civil War, to become the Slaves of a democratical Faction. We now enjoy the Eſſence of true Liberty, in the Safety of our Perſons and the Protection of our Property; whilſt a Trade, hitherto unknown in the Annals of Great Britain, gives Opulence to our Merchants and Plenty to our Manufacturers. We will repay theſe Bleſſings by a ſtrict Obedience to the Laws, a ſteady Attachment to our Sovereign, and an inviolable Adherence to the Civil and Religious Eſtabliſhments of our Country.

It is our ſincere Wiſh that your Majeſty may long reign in Health and Happineſs over a free People; and that your Iſſue may produce a Race of Patriot Kings to inherit the Throne of their Anceſtors through unnumbered Generations.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, met in a General Meeting of the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heretors of the County of Perth.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your loyal and affectionate Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, in order to expreſs the deep Senſe of Gratitude we entertain for the paternal Care manifeſted towards your faithful People, in your late gracious Proclamation.

Strongly impreſſed with Sentiments of Veneration for the happy Conſtitution under which we live, and to which, under God, we muſt attribute that unexampled Proſperity which this Nation now enjoys, we are ſatisfied that it would be the [illegible] Degree of Imprudence to hazard any Dep[illegible] from it's eſtabliſhed Principles, ſanctioned by long Experience, from the vain Hope of accommodating it to abſtract Ideas of Perfection, unattainable by any human Inſtitution.

Such viſionary Speculations might be looked upon with Contempt; but when wicked and deſigning Men endeavour to ſubvert the glorious Fabrick of our Laws and Liberty, by exciting a Spirit of Tumult and Sedition among the People, by inſtilling into their Minds a Jealouſy of their conſtitutional Repreſentatives in Parliament, and holding forth to the Public inflammatory Repreſentations of fictitious Grievances, ſuch Attempts cannot fail to excite our Indignation and Abhorrence; and we think ourſelves called upon, by every Principle of Duty as well as by a due Regard for our deareſt Intereſts, to uſe every Effort for bringing the Authors and Abettors of them to condign Puniſhment.

We return our humble and hearty Thanks to your Majeſty for having been pleaſed graciouſly to remind us of our Duty in theſe important Reſpects; and we can venture to give the moſt ſolemn Aſſurance, that it is our ſtedfaſt Reſolution, and will be our earneſt Endeavour, according to our reſpective Stations, to maintain the Authority of Government in it's full Force, to promote a Spirit of Order and Tranquillity among the People, and to inculcate the Neceſſity of a ready Submiſſion to Laws in all Ranks of Men, in order to preſerve, unimpaired, that Conſtitution which has rendered us the Envy of ſurrounding Nations.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People, and that all thoſe who live under the Protection of your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government may be duly ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy, is our ſincere Prayer.

Signed by our Preſes, in our Name and by our Appointment,

Athol.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Corporation of Huntingdon, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, our Zeal and Attachment to the beſt of Sovereigns, and to return our grateful Thanks for the Publication of your late Royal Proclamation for preſerving the Peace of theſe Kingdoms from the Attempts of wicked and deſigning Men.

We beg Leave to teſtify our moſt hearty Approbation of thoſe Meaſures which your Majeſty in your Wiſdom has thought proper to recommend, and to declare how anxiouſly we wiſh that our excellent Conſtitution may be tranſmitted to Poſterity unimpaired; and that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a happy, free and united People.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, the Eighteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

Rob. Godby, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Adddreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in the County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in the County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in Common Council aſſembled, ſincerely impreſſed with a grateful Senſe of thoſe Bleſſings which we enjoy under the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, as eſtabliſhed at that Period which placed your Majeſty's illuſtrious Anceſtors on the Throne, have learnt from your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, with much Anxiety and Alarm, that Attempts have been made, by induſtriouſly publiſhing and diſperſing divers wicked and ſeditious Writings, to weaken in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects Sentiments of Obedience to the Laws, and of Attachment to the Form of Government ſo happily eſtabliſhed in theſe Kingdoms.

Truly convinced that the Strength and Proſperity of the Empire, as well as the only Security for the Perſons, Property and Liberties of each Individual, are eſſentially connected with the Preſervation of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution, we humbly preſume to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Determination to maintain and defend it. Reflecting with peculiar Gratitude on the Bleſſings we actually enjoy, we deem it our indiſpenſable Duty to diſcourage every Attempt which may tend to alienate the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects from the preſent eſtabliſhed Form of Government, or which may endanger the Public Order and Tranquillity.

Given under our Common Seal, this 14th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

Matt. White Ridley, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of the moſt grateful Acknowledgments for the paternal Care your Majeſty has ſo lately ſhewn for the Happineſs of your People, by your late Royal Proclamation.

Being convinced of the great Danger there is in publiſhing ſeditious Writings to inflame and unſettle the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, and alienate them from our preſent happy Conſtitution in Church and State, (a Conſtitution, the Admiration and Envy of ſurrounding Nations) we cannot but heartily expreſs our Abhorrence of ſuch Principles and Practices, and will, to the utmoſt of our Power, aid your Majeſty's gracious Endeavours to ſuppreſs ſuch wicked and ſeditious Writings.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, and duly ſenſible of the Happineſs and Liberty we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and benignant Reign, we firmly rely on the Protection of your Majeſty and the Two Houſes of Parliament to continue to us our preſent happy Conſtitution in Church and State, and to ſecure it inviolate againſt the ſecret Machinations or open Attempts of factious and ſeditious Men.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Pontefract, beg Leave to expreſs our grateful Acknowledgments to your Majeſty for the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your mild and auſpicious Reign. We cannot but lament that any of your Majeſty's Subjects, jects ſhould be ſo factious and inconſiderate as to attempt to change the Form of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State.

We return our ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty for iſſuing your Royal Proclamation, which we hope will deter the Seditious from perſiſting in their evil Deſigns, and warn the Ignorant againſt being miſled by ſpecious Deluſions.

We aſſure your Majeſty that we will be earneſt in our Endeavours to promote good Order and a ſteady Obedience to the Laws of the Land.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Town of Penzance, in the County of Cornwall, and of the Principal Inhabitants of the ſaid Town and Neighbourhood.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Penzance, in Cornwall, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our hearty Thanks for your Majeſty's late moſt gracious Proclamation concerning divers wicked and ſeditious Writings, which have been printed and induſtriouſly diſperſed throughout ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom, tending to raiſe Diſcontent in the Minds of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects againſt the Laws and Conſtitution of this Country.

Senſible as we are of the manifold Bleſſings and Advantages which we enjoy under our preſent happy Conſtitution and your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, we behold, with Indignation and Concern, the Attempts of wicked and deſigning Men to diſturb the Tranquillity of the one, and leſſen the Attachment of your Majeſty's Subjects to the other. And we aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall at all Times be ready to exert ourſelves in the Support and Maintenance of the preſent Form of Government, Civil and Religious, ſo happily eſtabliſhed within this Realm.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Dumfries.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne with ſincere Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, and to expreſs the warm Attachment that we feel towards your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

Senſible of the Bleſſings we and our Anceſtors have long enjoyed under your our moſt happy Conſtitution, we cannot think, without ſerious Apprehenſion, on any Efforts that may be made to alter or endanger it. Animated with theſe Sentiments, we feel ourſelves called upon, at this Juncture, to expreſs our Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Care in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation for the Diſcouragement of thoſe ſeditious Writings, by which groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents have been attempted to be raiſed; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will exert our beſt Endeavours in employing every Conſtitutional Mean in our Power for preſerving the Public Tranquillity and Peace.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at the Town Hall, the 8th Day of June, 1792, by Dav. Blair, Chief Magiſtrate.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Foreign of Walſall, in the County of Stafford.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Foreign of Walſall, in the County of Stafford, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our moſt cordial and ſincere Thanks for your Majeſty's moſt zealous Regard for the Peace and Welfare of your Subjects, manifeſted by your Majeſty's late Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious Publications, and for the Preſervation of Order and good Government.

Whilſt we deplore and lament the Neceſſity of putting a Check on the many wicked and inſidious Writings, which are daily iſſued, for the Purpoſe of ſubverting our excellent Government and Conſtitution, and for the Deſtruction of all thoſe Benefits which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, we feel it to be the Duty of all good and loyal Subjects to come forward, and expreſs to your Majeſty our firm and hearty Reſolutions to ſupport, with our Lives and Fortunes, that Conſtitution, which our Anceſtors have erected for us, and which has ſo juſtly rendered this Nation the Envy and Admiration of the World.

If the Succeſs of our Manufacturers, the Extenſion of our Trade, the uncontrouled Enjoyment of our Property, and the free Exerciſe of every Civil and Religious Liberty, can ever endear us to the Government under which we live, theſe are Bleſſings which we daily enjoy, and which we feel to be our Intereſt, as well as our Duty, to preſerve and maintain.

Conſcious, therefore, of the Happineſs we derive from the Protection of your Majeſty's Government, founded on the wiſe and ſalutary Proviſions eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, we feel that the only Return we can make for ſuch great and ineſtimable Bleſſings is, by ſhewing by our Conduct a due Regard and Subordination to the Laws of our Country, and by ſuppreſſing all Attempts in others to violate and diſturb that Tranquillity and Security, which our happy Conſtitution is ſo well calculated to preſerve.

That your Majeſty may long live to receive the grateful Effuſions of a loyal People; and that we may ever be ſenſible of the Bleſſings we experience under your Majeſty's benign Government, are the ſincere Wiſhes of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and Liberties of Shrewſbury.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of Shrewſbury, being gratefully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, and under a Conſtitution which we regard as the moſt perfect of human Eſtabliſhments, moſt humbly entreat your Majeſty to accept our grateful Thanks for the paternal Care and Sollicitude to ſecure and perpetuate thoſe Bleſſings, which is manifeſted in your Royal Proclamation, for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious Publications.

We are happy in this Opportunity of expreſſing our affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon ſon and Family, our Concern and Aſtoniſhment that any of our Fellow Subjects ſhould approve, and even wiſh to diſſeminate, Political Opinions, equally hoſtile to their own Happineſs as Citizens, and to the Peace and good Order of your Majeſty's Kingdoms; and our Reſolution, in Obedience to your Royal Proclamation, to oppoſe, by all the Means in our Power, the Propagation of ſuch Doctrines, and to reſiſt, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, any Attempts that may be made to diſturb the Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Government.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Approved Men, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Andevor, in the County of Southampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Approved Men, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Andevor, humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Thanks for the freſh Inſtance of your paternal Regard to your People, in iſſuing your late Royal Proclamation againſt divers wicked and ſeditious Writings, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and the excellent Conſtitution of Government, under which your Majeſty's Subjects enjoy true Liberty, and legal and firm Security for their Lives and Properties, and, by the Guidance and Direction of your Majeſty's wiſe and auſpicious Government, have attained a Degree of Proſperity and Happineſs unrivalled by any other Nation.

Deeply impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we further beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our utmoſt Endeavours, in our reſpective Stations, will be exerted to prevent and ſuppreſs thoſe Enormities and wicked Deſigns, againſt which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed ſo graciouſly to warn us.

We beſeech the Divine Providence that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and happy, and that you and your illuſtrious Houſe may ſway the Sceptre of theſe Realms, and protect the preſent Conſtitution, and the Rights and Liberties of your People, to the lateſt Poſterity.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Wigan.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Wigan, moſt humbly approach your Majeſty, to offer our moſt grateful Thanks for your paternal Regard, manifeſted in your Royal Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of thoſe wicked and ſeditious Pulications, which aim at the Subverſion of all regular Government, and are inconſiſtent with the Peace and Order of Society.

Fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under the Conſtitution, as eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution, and ſtrengthened by ſubſequent Laws, we truſt it will deſcend, by your Majeſty's Care and Vigilance, unimpaired to Poſterity, and we ſhall look with Indignation on every inſidious Attempt that may be made by wild and daring Individuals to undermine it. Under a Reign ſo peculiarly diſtinguiſhed for it's Mildneſs and Benignity, all ſuch Efforts will be as impotent as they are unwarrantable. With dutiful and loyal Attachment to your Royal Perſon, permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will unite with Alacrity and Firmneſs, in every vigorous Exertion for the Support of a Government, to which, from paſt Experience, we have every Reaſon to be religiouſly devoted, where the Dignity of the Crown and the Liberty of the Subject are eſſentially united, and where private and public Happineſs are equally ſecured.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick, having read, with Pleaſure and Attention, your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing ſeditious Publications and Tumults, beg Leave openly to profeſs and declare to your Majeſty the grateful Senſe we entertain of this ſtrong Inſtance of your Majeſty's watchful and paternal Care for the Peace and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Senſible, as we are, of the innumerable Bleſſings and Comforts we (in common with your Majeſty's other Subjects) enjoy under our admirable Conſtitution, we moſt ſincerely lament that there ſhould exiſt in this Realm a Set of Men, who, inattentive to the general Intereſt of the Nation, envious of the Happineſs of their Fellow Subjects, and deſirous of Innovation, ſhould inſidiouſly endeavour to ſap the Foundation of our happy Eſtabliſhment, and promote Anarchy, Miſery, and Diſtreſs in the Country.

But being, by Obſervation, too well convinced there are ſuch Men, we think it our Duty to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady Attachment to your Perſon and Government; that we ſhall, at all Times, be ready to exert every Means in our Power to ſupport and preſerve the ineſtimable Conſtitution of this Empire as by Law eſtabliſhed; and to hand it down to our lateſt Poſterity, unimpaired and unſhaken by the theoretical and malicious Schemes of artful, reſtleſs and deſigning Men, as firm and entire as we received it from our Anceſtors.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the ancient Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, in Common Hall aſſembled, think ourſelves called upon at this Time to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, our Attachment to the Conſtitution of this Kingdom as by Law eſtabliſhed, our Loyalty to our Sovereign, and our heartfelt Gratitude for the new Proof of your Majeſty's paternal Affection for your People, manifeſted by your late Royal Proclamation.

We venerate the Laws of our happy Conſtitution, which ſecure to us the higheſt Meaſure of Civil Liberty, the Protection of our Perſons, the free Exerciſe of our Religion, and the peaceable Enjoyment of our Properties.

We cannot behold with ſupine Indifference the inſidious and alarming Attempts of thoſe Enemies to their Country, who ſeek to inſtil into the Minds of the People of theſe Realms a Jealouſy of that Government which, we are well convinced, has no other End but the Happineſs of the Subject, and who, by raiſing up Shadows of Grievances, exiſting only in the the visionary Theory of wild Speculatists, under the Pretence of Reform, evidently aim at introducing a baneful Anarchy in the Room of a System of Polity, the best and mildest that human Wisdom ever could devise.

That your Majesty may long, very long, continue to reign over a free and happy People, in the full Enjoyment of all the Blessings of Peace, and that you may be enabled to hand down our excellent Constitution, as established at the Glorious Revolution, unimpaired to latest Posterity, is the united Prayer of your faithful Subjects.

By Order,

Tho. Wilkinson, Mayor.
Peter Taylor, Common Clerk.
